

The Clinical Thesis Track (15 courses)

First Year

- Fall
 - PSYC 6150 Theories of Psychotherapy
 - PSYC 6273 Individual Intelligence Testing
 - PSYC 6190 Research Methods
 - PSYC 6263 Psychometrics for Psychological Assessment (online)
- Spring
 - PSYC 6530 Advanced Abnormal Psychology
 - PSYC 6283 Objective Psychological Assessment
 - PSYC 6290 Research Statistics
- Summer*
 - PSYC 6100 Professional Issues, Ethics, and Diversity
 - PSYC 6243 Psychotherapy Skills and Basic Principles

In order to make timely progression through the program, we strongly recommend that students have a thesis topic and advisor by the end of their first summer.*

Second Year

- Fall
 - PSYC 6250 Group Psychotherapy
 - PSYC 6780 Advanced Developmental Psychology
 - PSYC 6902 Independent Study (For Thesis)
- Spring
 - PSYC 6160 History and Systems of Psychology
 - PSYC 6450 Advanced Social Psychology
 - PSYC 6902 Independent Study (For Thesis)
 - PSYC 6982 Master of Psychology Comprehensive Exam

Important Notes:

- Fall semester: Research Methods and Group Psychotherapy are always offered on the same night. Both cannot be taken in the same year.
- Spring semester: Objective Assessment and Advanced Social are always offered on the same night. Both cannot be taken in the same year.